

2014 Talisman
Wildcat Mountain Vineyard
Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir

The nose is rather primary initially with delicate aromas of cherry, picking up intensity over time in the glass. The cherry essence is integrated with feral, game and floral notes making for an interesting drink. A little more tannin is evident in this wine. There is deft oak management and the finish has good persistence.

PinotFile 08.07.17

93points