

SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE
WINE COMPETITION 2019
THE LARGEST COMPETITION OF AMERICAN WINES

2014 Adastra Vineyard
Pinot Noir

Bright and ebullient, this wine charms with intense perfumed notes of raspberry, blueberry and black licorice. The palate is round, soft and lush with fascinating accents of rhubarb, caraway, sandalwood, cream soda and mineral. It's rich, firm structure ensures a good pairing with a hearty meal, and promises balance and long aging potential.

— Scott Rich, Winemaker

