

by Josh Reynolds

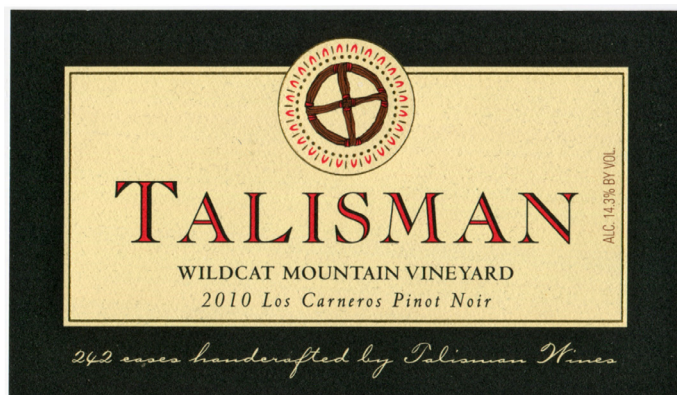

Bright red. Complex, heady aromas of dark berries, vanilla, smoky Indian spices and vanilla, with a sexy floral nuance emerging with air. Sweet, seamless and expansive, offering intense black raspberry, lavender and cola flavors underscored by zesty minerality. The spice and floral qualities dominate the long, focused finish, which is firmed by fine-grained, slow-mounting tannins.

91
POINTS

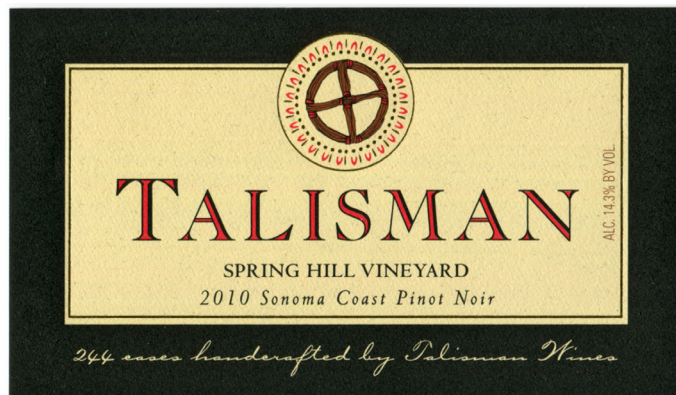

Brilliant ruby-red. Intense aromas of raspberry liqueur, Asian spices and potpourri, lifted by a bright mineral topnote. Offers an array of red fruit and floral flavors underscored by a tangy blood orange quality and given depth by a subtle mocha nuance. Sweet, seamless and incisive on the clinging finish, which features a touch of vanilla and lingering smokiness.

92
POINTS

Vivid ruby-red. Explosive, mineral-accented aromas of raspberry compote, allspice, cola and potpourri show excellent clarity. In the mouth, palate-staining, spice-accented red and dark berry flavors put on weight as the wine opens up. Shows a zesty mineral quality on the penetrating finish, which features silky tannins and echoing floral and red fruit notes.

91
POINTS

Brilliant ruby-red. Vibrant aromas of red and dark berry liqueur, rose oil and Asian spices, with a hint of cola in the background. Juicy and precise on entry, then broader in the middle, offering gently sweet, mineral-tinged black raspberry and spicecake flavors and a touch of smokiness. Plays power off of vivacity smoothly and finishes sweet, gently tannic and very long, leaving a cola note behind.

90
POINTS