San Francisco Chronicle

WINE COMPETITION

LARGEST COMPETITION OF
NORTH AMERICAN WINES

Founded in 1983 as the Cloverdale Citrus Fair, The San Francisco Chronical Wine Competition, has evolved over the years, broadening its base to a greater number of wine regions. It has grown to become North America's most respected and highly publicized wine competitions. This year there were over sixty judges, representing various North American wine regions, evaluating 5,500 wines from nearly 1,000 wineries.
